Scholarships

The key to finding and receiving scholarship money is planning and commitment. Take the time to type your application, answer questions thoughtfully, proofread your application several times and begin to research funding opportunities as soon as you become interested in studying abroad. The International Learning Opportunities office has a number of scholarships available. The application that follows is for the following scholarships: USAC scholarships, USAC STEM scholarships, Eto scholarships, Ansotegui-Fereday Memorial Scholarship, International Learning Opportunities scholarships and the Sandra Eggers Memorial Scholarship. You will be considered for all scholarships you are qualified to receive. Please contact Corrine Henke (426-2630) for more information.

USAC scholarship
Any student who is participating in a USAC program is eligible to receive this scholarship, which will be deducted from the balance of fees owed to USAC. The average award is $500 - $1,500 per person.

USAC STEM scholarship
Any student who is a declared STEM major (Science, Technology, Engineering, or Math) and is participating in a USAC program is eligible to receive this scholarship. Awards range from $500 - $2,500 per person. Students do not have to study STEM courses while abroad.

Ansotegui-Fereday Memorial Scholarship
Awards in the range of $500 - $1,500 will be awarded to students studying Basque language and culture in San Sebastian/Donostia and Bilbao in the Basque region of Spain.

Eto Scholarship
Several scholarship awards of $500 - $3,000 will be given to students who study at sites in Asia, Australia or New Zealand.

Sandra Eggers Memorial Scholarship
Scholarships will be made available to Boise State students participating in a study abroad program. The average award is $500 per person.

International Learning Opportunities Scholarships
ILO scholarship awards are available for any program and require the completion of service hours promoting study abroad upon return to Boise State campus.
